it's finally starting
the class trial where hope crushes against other hopes

..this is really exciting unfortunately the murder occoured while I was confined, so I wasn't able to help... but this trial will once more become a stepping stone to make everyone's hope even stronger no matter what the outcome is, the one winning at the end can only be hope

Ep.12

let's stop talking about useless things and focus on our aim i changed the rules a bit for this occasion what's your aim?
my aim?
my aim is to make you give up your aims if you want to survive, you should give up those useless aims of yours enjoy your class trial!
学級裁判
開廷!!
then ...
let's start talking about the motive "twilight syndrome murder case" i think those who have cleared the game should know that the game is based on a murder case that has actually happened

the cast of that murder case is among us since there's someone like me who didn't play the game could you explain?
"that bitch what did she do to my sister" the name "kuzuryuu" appeared twice because kuzuryuu had a "little" sister you could tell it from what happened in the game cast tsumiki koizumi saionji mioda satou kuzuryuu kuzuryuu tsumiki, koizumi, saionji, mioda, satou, kuzuryuu, kuzuryuu.. the names that appeared in the credits are saying something like that while laughing... you're really tough kuzuryuu's sister was killed by "E-ko" but D-ko wanted to protect E-ko so she got rid of the evidences of her crime and acted as if it was someone else's doing E-suke, who found out the truth, killed E-ko with a baseball bat to revenge his sister this is what happened in that game, more or less

it must be you
so what? don't mix reality with a game!
yes, i do have a sister あはっ
it was sarcastic, you idiot!
"tough" you say? are you praising me?
only a trash like you, a villain like kuzuryuu who would break the law just by walking around would kill the gentle big sis koizumi you are the culprit who murdered her for revenge!
huh? trap?
but it also could be a trap set by the culprit using the game indeed kuzuryuu is suspicious saionji!

isn't that so?
huh?
you disgu-sting ugly girl! why are you accusing me?
i-
i have not!
i've been squishing ants the whole day today you've been at the crime scene in the beach house, right?
that's wrong
are you sure that you didn't go to the beach house?
the footprints near the beach house are yours...

those footprints and the ones I took from your room are exactly the same...
w-who allowed you in my room you lolicon?! what have you done?!
huh?
they're not saionji's footprint? that's weird... m-
my footprints aren't so ugly!
such stupid-looking footprints must belong to tsumiki!
you mean the tunnel-side door that koizumi's body is now blocking?
another way...
there are only footprints lead out of the house on the beach in other words, saionji entered the house through another way no...
that's...
is the perfect evidence that you were at the crime scene at that time, right?
also the appointment time written in the letter in koizumi's pocket...

you saw saionji too, didn't you?
i think kuzuryuu was there too ah, that's right
i saw saionji running out from the beach house around 15 30 that's the truth! i can't help it that's very suspicious... no... i didn't see her after meeting you guys i went back to my room i didn't see anyone else then who's that person? whose trap is it?
tha-
that's a trap! someone set a trap for me!
according to that letter and souda's testimony we can say that saionji has met koizumi in the beach house let's forget that guy for now... it's useless to investigate further...

kirakira-chan? what's that?
the culprit of this murder case must be "kirakira-chan" who's lurking in the island that mask esplains every-thing!
there was a mask on the crime scene right?
i am "kira kira-chan!"
The rightful wielder of the shining light of justice!
jus tice com plete !
The time has come to don this mask imbued with the very essence of justice and lay bare the ugly entrails of evil kirakira-chan is a serial killed self-proclamed as alley of justice i've translate what the reporter who met kirakira-chan wrote that was kirakira-chan's catch-phrase
huh?

this is cultural difference, "cultural shock"!
d-
don't blame sonia!
you..
if you keep saying those weird things, i'll kill you!! but it's still impossible, right? how could there be a serial killer lurking in the island?
it's not like i can't understand how sonia feels..
it's still hard to believe that one of us has committed such a terrible murder...
b-but ...
the only thing wrong here is your mind!
the-
sai-onji!
it's time to confess! don't deny anymore!

w-what candies are you talking about? i don't eat such things ?
you often eat them, don't you?
there's a gummy bear dropped in the closet that's the evidence saionji invited koizumi to the beach house because she wanted to kill her, right?
fuhahaha the solution to the puzzle has been found!
saionji, who lured koizumi to the beach house, was hidding in the closet like a demon like a demon, she caught the chance to attack koizumi, then she left the house like wind fuhaha this explains everything! there's no need for the 4 dark lords of destruction to take action in saionji's room
there's a large quantity of 4 types gummy bears strawberry, melon, grape, and orange flavored
it's true that she was hidding in the closet, right?
don't think that you'll be able to clear every suspicion just with a piece of candy 論破!!

what?!
that's wrong!
huh?
that gummy is yellow?
then it's not mine! i don't eat yellow gummy!
it's not a flavor saionji likes, right?
the gummy bear on the crime scene is yellow it must be lemon flavored among the gummies in her room, no one is yellow that's right...

I want to beat them up till their skull break!
uuh damnit, who the hell set that trap?! then we can't be sure that it's saiorg the one who dropped it it's
it's not over yet
don't under-stimate me!
why are you keeping accusing saiorg no matter what?
we still have the most important evidence!
Honey work

kuzu-
ryuu...
the footprints on the beach
...
till we have
that evidence,
saionji won't get rid of my suspicion

upupu
it's starting!
